PIPELINE CASE

TENTATIVE RULING:

The Court rules on defendant AEP Energy Services, Inc.'s applications for admission pro hac vice as follows:

The Court denies the applications without prejudice, as the Court finds that the applications failed to comply with CRC Rule 983(b)(3) and (4). More specifically, the declarations attached to the applications failed to state that attorneys Robert B. Wolinsky and Steven J. Routh were members in good standing in the courts to which they have been admitted and failed to state that they were not currently suspended or disbarred in any court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
