

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

FAMILY LAW E-FILING EXCEPTION LIST

As of May 26th, 2020, San Diego Superior Court will begin accepting eFilings for Family Law matters. Attorneys and the public will now be able to file documents with the Court without physically coming into the courthouse, except for the following.

Family Law E-Filing Exception List:

- Appeals Filings
- Application and Order for Publication/Posting
- Department of Child Support Services/Family Support Division Filings
- Domestic Violence Paperwork (Initial and Subsequent Filings)
- Earnings Assignment Orders/ Income Withholding Orders
- Ex Parte Filings
- Findings and Orders After Hearing
- Judgments
- Mandatory Settlement Conference Briefs
- Non-Imaged Family Law Cases (Legacy Cases)
- Notice of Appeal and any Supporting Appeal Paperwork
- Notice of Lodgments and Accompanying Exhibits
- Peremptory Challenges
- Proposed Orders
- QDRO's
- Request for Dismissal
- Request to Continue Hearing (FL-306)
- Requests to Appear Telephonically
- Stipulations and Orders
- Subpoenaed Documents
- Surrogacy Filings
- Trial Exhibits
- Writs/Abstracts

To file any of the documents listed above please send via mail or drop off at the appropriate court location.