

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

REQUIRED CRIMINAL BACKGROUND DISCLOSURE

The Superior Court has a policy that applicants must have a reputation for honesty and trustworthiness. Convictions, depending on the type, number and recency, may be disqualifying. Outstanding cases must be resolved to receive clearance.

All applicants for San Diego Superior Court employment are required to complete and submit a disclosure of past criminal convictions on the Background Investigation Form (See opposite side of sheet). This information will be maintained separately and confidentially by the Superior Court Human Resources Division, and will NOT be available to managers interviewing to fill vacant positions.

Instructions:

1. Complete Part 1, the identifying information section at the top of the form.
2. Complete Part 2, the criminal conviction disclosure section.

Note: You may omit:

- Minor traffic infractions;
 - Offenses adjudicated in Juvenile Court
 - Convictions for which the record has been judicially ordered sealed, expunged, or statutorily eradicated; or resolved by pre-trial diversion; or misdemeanor convictions where probation has been successfully completed or otherwise discharged and the case has been judicially dismissed pursuant to Pen. Code § 1203.4.
 - Convictions for the following offenses, as they relate to marijuana, two years from the date of conviction: possession (Health & Saf. Code § 11357(b) or (c)); giving away or offering to give away, transporting, offering to transport, or attempting to transport not more than 28.5 grams (Health & Saf. Code§ 11360 (b)); possession of paraphernalia (Health &Saf. Code § 11364); presence where controlled substances are being unlawfully used (Health & Saf. Code§ 11365); or unlawfully using or being under the influence of controlled substances (Health & Saf. Code § 11550).
3. Complete Part 3, the section on public records. The Superior Court considers conviction records as part of the background investigation process. The court will provide copies of such public records unless the applicant has waived the right to receive them. If the court does not hire the applicant based on the information obtained, the court will provide the records even if the applicant has waived the right to receive them.

Note: Information provided by the California Department of Justice (DOJ) is considered to be confidential and generally cannot be disclosed by the court. However, if the court does not hire the applicant based on the information obtained from the DOJ, the court will provide to the applicant copies of the information it relied on in making its decision. If no adverse employment decision is made based on the DOJ information, applicants will need to contact the DOJ to obtain this information. Information contained in the local records check is also confidential, but the court can provide a summary of the case information which was disqualifying, and, if desired, applicants can obtain copies of information in their case files at the court location where the case resides.

4. Sign and date the form at the bottom.
5. Submit the Background Investigation Form along with a copy of your driver's license or California Identification card, a copy of your Social Security Card and your Superior Court Application to the Superior Court Human Resources Division at:
