How Do I Get an Order to Prohibit Workplace Violence?

These instructions cannot cover all of the questions that may arise in a particular case. If you do not know what to do to protect your rights, you should see a lawyer.

What is a workplace violence protective order?

Under California law (Code Civ. Proc., § 527.8), courts can make orders to protect an employee from suffering harassment, unlawful violence, or credible threats of violence at the workplace.

The court can order a person not to:

- Harass or threaten an employee;
- · Contact or go near an employee; and
- Have any firearms (guns), firearm parts, ammunition, or body armor. This includes firearm receivers and frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531).

For more information about the items a restrained person cannot have, please see selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/restraining-orders/prohibited-items.

These orders will be enforced by law enforcement agencies.

Who can get a workplace violence protective order?

Employers can obtain court orders prohibiting harassment, unlawful violence, or credible threats of violence against their employees. An employer is defined as:

- Every person engaged in any business or enterprise in this state that has one or more persons in service under any appointment, contract of hire, or apprenticeship, express or implied, oral or written, irrespective of whether such person is the owner of the business or is operating on a concessionaire or other basis. (Lab. Code, § 350(a).)
- A federal, state, or local public agency; a city, county, district, or public corporation. (Code Civ. Proc., § 527.8(b)(3).)

Collective Bargaining Representatives can also obtain orders prohibiting harassment, unlawful violence, or credible threats of violence against employees. In order to bring a petition for an order under this law, the collective bargaining representative must serve as a collective bargaining representative for that employee in employment or labor matters at the employee's workplace.

Before completing the forms needed to obtain court orders under this statute, make certain you meet the definitions of "employer" or "collective bargaining representative" as defined above.

The statute differs from other California laws that allow victims of harassment, unlawful violence, or credible threats of violence to ask the court for these orders themselves. If anyone other than the employer or the collective bargaining representative wishes to apply to the court for an order prohibiting harassment, see Can a Civil Harassment Restraining Order Help Me? (form CH-100-INFO).

Who can an employer or collective bargaining representative protect under this law?

Under this statute, an employer or collective bargaining representative can obtain a court order that lasts up to three years on behalf of an employee. The order can also protect certain family or household members of the employee and other employees at the employee's workplace or at other workplaces of the employer.

Note: Before filing a petition, an employer or collective bargaining representative of an employee must provide the employee who has suffered harassment, unlawful violence, or a credible threat of violence from any individual, an opportunity to decline to be named in the restraining order. An employee's request to not be named in the order does not prohibit an employer or collective bargaining representative from seeking a restraining order on behalf of other employees at the workplace, and, if appropriate, other employees at other workplaces of the employer.

California law defines "employees" as:

- Every person, including aliens and minors, rendering actual service in any business for an employer, whether gratuitously or for wages or pay; whether the wages or pay are measured by the standard of time, piece, task, commission, or other method of calculation; and whether the service is rendered on a commission, concessionaire, or other basis. (Lab. Code, § 350(b).)
- Members of boards of directors and public officers.
- Volunteers or independent contractors who perform services for the employer at the employer's work site.

How Do I Get an Order to Prohibit Workplace Violence?

The "respondent" is the person against whom the employer or collective bargaining representative is requesting the protective order.

An employer may seek protection under this law if:

- An employee has suffered harassment, unlawful violence, or a credible threat of violence from any individual;
- 2. The unlawful violence was carried out in the workplace, or the threat of violence can reasonably be construed to be carried out in the workplace;
- 3. The respondent's conduct is not allowable as part of a legitimate labor dispute as permitted by Code of Civil Procedure section 527.3; and
- 4. The respondent is not engaged in constitutionally protected activity.

What forms must be used to get the order?

- 1. Petition for Orders Workplace Violence Restraining Orders (Petition) (form WV-100). This form tells the judge the facts of the petitioner's case and what orders the petitioner wants the court to make.
- Confidential Information for Law Enforcement (form CLETS-001). This form will provide law enforcement agencies with the information needed to enforce any orders that are granted.
- 3. Notice of Court Hearing (form WV-109). This form tells the parties when the hearing on the petition will be held.
- 4. Temporary Restraining Order (TRO) (form WV-110). A TRO can be issued to provide protection to the employee until the hearing is held. It can be issued by the judge either with or without notice to the respondent.
- 5. Workplace Violence Restraining Order After Hearing (Order) (form WV-130). This is the form signed by the court following the hearing. The order can last for up to three years depending on what the judge rules.
 - These forms are all mandatory—that is, they must be used in the workplace violence prevention proceeding.
- 6. Proof of Personal Service (form WV-200). This form is used to show that the other party has been served with the petition and other forms as required by law.

Where can I get these forms?

You can get the forms from legal publishers or from the California Courts website at www.courts.ca.gov/forms. You also may be able to find them at your local courthouse or county law library.

Do I need a lawyer?

The employer or collective bargaining representative may be represented by a lawyer, but one is not required by law unless an employer that is a corporation is the petitioner. Because the employer's or union's lawyer will generally be representing the interests of the employee, the employee usually does not need his or her own lawyer. Whether or not the employer or collective bargaining representative has a lawyer, the respondent may have one.

What steps are needed to get the court orders?

- Fill in the Petition (form WV-100) completely and fill in items 1–3 of the Notice of Court Hearing (form WV-109). If you are seeking a TRO, also fill out form WV-110.
- 2. If you are seeking orders based on information from others and not based on what you have personally observed, you must have each of those persons complete a declaration to attach to the Petition (form WV-100). You may use form MC-031, Attached Declaration.
- 3. Fill in Confidential Information for Law Enforcement (form CLETS-001) with as much information as you know. If the judge grants the order, the information on this form will be entered into a statewide protective-order database that will be available to law enforcement agencies if the order needs to be enforced.
- 4. If you are applying for a TRO, fill out form WV-110 completely. The petition and the declarations must give the details of the recent acts of harassment, violence, or credible threats of violence and the problems they have caused.

To obtain a TRO, you must notify the respondent of the request for the temporary order unless both of the following requirements are satisfied:

a. It appears from facts shown on the petition that great or irreparable injury will result before the matter can be heard on notice; and

How Do I Get an Order to Prohibit Workplace Violence?

- b. You or your attorney certifies one of the following to the court under oath:
 - (1) That within a reasonable time before presenting the petition to the court to ask for a TRO, you informed the respondent or the respondent's attorney when and where the request for a TRO would be made;
 - (2) That you in good faith attempted but were unable to inform the respondent and the respondent's attorney, specifying the efforts made to contact them; or
 - (3) That for reasons specified, you should not be required to inform the respondent or the respondent's attorney.
- 5. Take your original completed forms and copies to the clerk's office at the court. You will need multiple copies: one for you, one for each person to be protected, and one to serve on the respondent. Each protected person will need a copy of the TRO if it is necessary to call the police. The clerk will file the originals, assign a case number, and return the copies "file-stamped" to you. The clerk will write your hearing date on the Notice of Court Hearing (form WV-109).
- 6. If you are seeking a TRO (form WV-110), the clerk will tell you where and how to present your proposed order to a judge for consideration and signature. The court will decide within 24 hours whether or not to make the order. Sometimes the court decides right away. Ask the clerk if you should wait or come back later. If your request for a TRO is granted while you are still at the court, take the signed original back to the clerk to be filed.
- 7. If a TRO has been issued, ask the clerk whether you or your lawyer will need to deliver a file-stamped copy of the TRO to each law enforcement agency (police, marshal, or sheriff's office) that might be called on to enforce the order. If so, do so immediately.

If the court issues a TRO, it will last until the hearing date.

- 8. If a person to be protected by the order does not speak English, when you file your papers, ask the clerk if a court interpreter is available. You can also use form INT-300, Request for Interpreter (Civil), or a local court form or website to request an interpreter. For more information about court interpreters, go to selfhelp. courts.ca.gov/request-interpreter.
- 9. Have the respondent personally served with copies of the Petition (form WV-100), the Notice of Court Hearing (form WV-109), the TRO (form WV-110) (if issued), a blank Response (form WV-120), and a blank Proof of Service of Response by Mail (form WV-250). You cannot serve the respondent yourself. Service may be made by a licensed process server, the sheriff's department, or any person 18 years of age or older who is not involved in the case. For help with service, ask the court clerk for form WV-200-INFO, What Is "Proof of Personal Service"?

Service is essential. It tells the respondent about the order and the hearing. Without it, there cannot be a court hearing, and your temporary orders will no longer be good unless they are extended by the court. The respondent should be personally served immediately after the orders are signed by the judge, unless the court specifies a different time for service.

10. After the respondent has been personally served, the person who served the respondent must complete and sign the original Proof of Personal Service (form WV-200). Take the signed original and copies back to the court clerk. The clerk will file the original and return "file-stamped" copies to you. Ask the clerk whether you should take a file-stamped copy to each law enforcement agency that might be called on to enforce the order. If so, do so immediately.

How Do I Get an Order to Prohibit Workplace Violence?

11. Go to court on the date shown at item 4 on the Notice of Court Hearing (form WV-109). You do not need to bring any witnesses, but it helps to have more proof of the violence or threats than just one person's word.

You can bring to the hearing:

- Witnesses
- Written statements from witnesses made under oath
- Photos
- Medical or police reports
- Damaged property
- Threatening letters, emails, or telephone messages

The court may or may not let witnesses speak at the hearing. So, if possible, you should bring their written statements under oath to the hearing. (You can use form MC-030, Declaration.)

The respondent has the right to attend the hearing, but he or she does not have the right to speak to the employee or to any other person seeking protection. If anyone is afraid, tell the court officer.

- 12. If the judge signs the Order (form WV-130), ask the clerk to provide you with a file-stamped copy for each person to be protected. Ask the clerk whether you or your attorney will need to deliver a file-stamped copy of the Order to each law enforcement agency that might be called on to enforce the order. If so, do so immediately.
- 13. If the respondent attended the hearing and heard the terms of the Order from the court, no additional proof of service is necessary. If the respondent did not attend the hearing, but the Order issued is the same as the TRO (except for the termination date), the Order may be served on the respondent by mail. File form WV-260, Proof of Service of Order After Hearing by Mail. If the respondent did not attend the hearing and the Order differs from the TRO, arrange to have him or her personally served with a copy of the Order. File the completed Proof of Personal Service (form WV-200) with the court. Give a file-stamped copy of the Order and proof of service to your employee and to each other protected person. Keep at least one copy for yourself.
- 14. Once the order is issued, only the judge can change or cancel it. You or the respondent would have to file a request with the court to cancel the order.

Notice Regarding Nonappearance at Hearing and Service of Order

If you have been personally served with this Temporary Restraining Order and form WV-109, Notice of Court Hearing, but you do not appear at the hearing either in person or by a lawyer, and a restraining order that is the same as this Temporary Restraining Order except for the expiration date is issued at the hearing, a copy of the order will be served on you by mail at the address in item 3.

If this address is not correct or you wish to verify that the Temporary Restraining Order was converted into a restraining order at the hearing without substantive change, or to find out the duration of the order, contact the clerk of the court.

Case Number:

After You Have Been Served With a Restraining Order

- Obey all the orders. Any intentional violation of this Order is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine or by imprisonment in a county jail, or by both fine and imprisonment. (Pen. Code, § 273.6.)
- Read form WV-120-INFO, How Can I Respond to a Petition for Orders to Stop Workplace Violence?, to learn how to respond to this Order.
- If you want to respond, fill out form WV-120, Response to Petition for Workplace Violence Restraining Orders, and file it with the court clerk. You do not have to pay any fee to file your response if the petition claims that you threatened violence against or stalked the employee, or placed the employee in reasonable fear of violence.
- You must have form WV-120 served on the petitioner or the petitioner's attorney by mail. You cannot do this yourself. The person who does the service should complete and sign form WV-250, Proof of Service of Response by Mail. File the completed proof of service with the court clerk before the hearing date or bring it with you to the hearing.
- In addition to the response, you may file and have declarations served, signed by you and other persons who have personal knowledge of the facts. You may use form MC-030, Declaration, for this purpose. It is available from the clerk's office at the court shown on page 1 of this form or at www.courts.ca.gov/forms. If you do not know how to prepare a declaration, you should see a lawyer.
- Whether or not you file a response, you should attend the hearing. If you have any witnesses, they must also go to the hearing.
- At the hearing, the judge can make restraining orders against you that last for up to three years. Tell the judge why you disagree with the orders requested.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

Enforcing the Restraining Order

This order is enforceable by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Restraining and Protective Orders System (CARPOS). Agencies are encouraged to enter violation messages into CARPOS. If the law enforcement agency has not received proof of service on the restrained person, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then must enforce it. Violations of this order are subject to criminal penalties.

Start Date and End Date of Orders

This order starts on the date next to the judge's signature on page 4. The order ends on the expiration date in item (4) on page 1.

If a Protected Person Contacts the Restrained Person

Even if a protected person invites or consents to contact with the restrained person, this order remains in effect and must be enforced. The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The order can be changed only by another court order. (Pen. Code, § 13710(b).)

Case Number:

Conflicting Orders—Priorities for Enforcement

If more than one restraining order has been issued protecting a protected person from the restrained person, the orders must be enforced in the following priority (see Pen. Code, § 136.2 and Fam. Code, §§ 6383(h)(2), 6405(b)):

- 1. Emergency Protective Order (EPO): If one of the orders is an Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-001), provisions (e.g., stay-away order) that are more restrictive than in the other restraining/protective orders must be enforced. Provisions of another order that do not conflict with the EPO must be enforced.
- 2. No-Contact Order: If a restraining/protective order includes a no-contact order, the no-contact order must be enforced. Item 6a(4) is an example of a no-contact order.
- 3. Criminal Protective Order (CPO): If none of the orders include an EPO or a no-contact order, the most recent CPO must be enforced. (Fam. Code, §§ 6383(h)(2) and 6405(b).) Additionally, a CPO issued in a criminal case involving charges of domestic violence, Penal Code sections 261, 261.5, or former 262, or charges requiring sex offender registration must be enforced over any civil court order. (Pen. Code, § 136.2(e)(2).) All provisions in the civil court order that do not conflict with the CPO must be enforced.
- 4. Civil Restraining Orders: If there is more than one civil restraining order (e.g., domestic violence, juvenile, elder abuse, civil harassment), then the order that was issued last must be enforced. Provisions that do not conflict with the most recent civil restraining order must be enforced.

Plaintiff must file this cover sheet with the first partial under the Probate Code, Family Code, or Welfare.

- File this cover sheet in addition to any cover sheet required by local court rule.
- If this case is complex under rule 3.400 et seq. of the California Rules of Court, you must serve a copy of this cover sheet on all other parties to the action or proceeding.
- Unless this is a collections case under rule 3.740 or a complex case, this cover sheet will be used for statistical purposes only.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex. CASE TYPES AND EXAMPLES

What Is "Proof of Personal Service"?

What is "Service"?

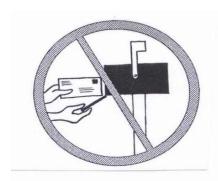

Service is the act of giving legal papers to the other party. There are many kinds of service—in person, by mail, and others. This form is about personal or "in-person" service. The Petition for Orders to Stop Workplace Violence (Form WV-100), the Notice of Court Hearing (Form WV-109), and the Temporary Restraining Order (Form WV-110) must be served in person. That means that someone must personally "serve" (give) a copy of the forms to the person to be restrained. These forms vcannot be served by mail.

Service lets the other person know:

- What orders you are asking for
- · The hearing date
- · How to respond

Why do I have to get the orders served?

- The police cannot arrest anyone for violating an order unless that person knows about the order.
- The judge cannot make the orders permanent unless the restrained person was served.

Don't serve it by mail!

Who can serve?

Ask someone you know, a process server, or a law enforcement agency to personally serve (give) a copy of the forms to the person to be restrained. You cannot send the forms to that person by mail.

The server must:

- Be 18 years of age or older
- Not be you or anyone whom you are asking to be protected by the orders

The sheriff or marshal may be authorized to serve the court's orders for free if the orders are based on claims of stalking, unlawful violence, or a credible threat of violence.

A registered process server is a business you pay to deliver court forms. Look for "Process Serving" in the Yellow Pages or on the Internet.

(If a law enforcement agency or the process server uses a different proof-of-service form, make sure it lists the forms served.)

How to serve

Ask the server to:

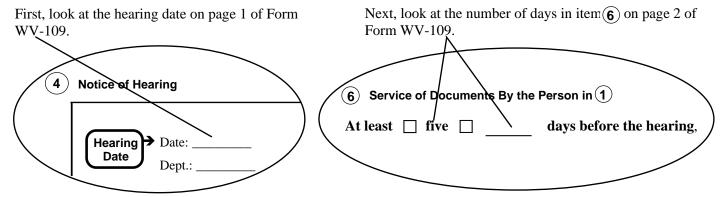

- Walk up to the person to be served.
- Make sure it is the right person. Ask the person's name.
- Give the person copies of all papers checked on Form WV-200, Proof of Personal Service.
- Fill out and sign the Proof of Personal Service.
- Give the signed Proof of Personal Service to you.

What if the person won't take the papers or tears them up?

- If the person will not take the papers, just leave them near him or her.
- It does not matter if the person tears them up. Service is still complete.

When do the orders have to be served?

It depends. To know the exact date, you have to look at two things on Form WV-109, Notice of Court Hearing.

Look at a calendar. Subtract the number of days in 6 from the hearing date. That is the final date to have the orders served. It is always OK to serve earlier than that date.

If nothing is checked or written in (6), you must serve the orders at least five days before the hearing.

Who signs the Proof of Personal Service?

Only the person who serves the forms can sign Form WV-200, Proof of Personal Service. You do not sign it; the restrained person does not need to sign it.

What do I do with the completed Proof of Personal Service?

If someone other than the sheriff serves the papers, you should:

- · Make several copies.
- File the original with the court before your hearing.
- Ask the clerk to enter it into the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS), a special computer system that lets police all over the state find out about the orders protecting you.
- If the clerk tells you that the court cannot enter it into the computer, take a copy of the Temporary Restraining Order (Form WV-110) and Proof of Personal Service (Form WV-200) to your local police. They will put the information into the state computer system. That way, police all over the state will know that your restraining order has been served.
- Bring a copy of the completed Proof of Personal Service to your hearing.
- Always keep an extra copy of the restraining orders with you for your safety.

If the sheriff serves the papers, he or she will send the proof of service to the court and CLETS for you.

What happens if I can't get the orders served before the hearing date?

Before your hearing, fill out and file Form WV-115, Request to Continue Court Hearing and to Reissue Temporary Restraining Order. This form asks the court for a new hearing date and makes your orders last until then. Ask the clerk for the form. After the court has reissued the orders, attach a copy of Form WV-116, Notice of New Hearing Date and Order on Reissuance, to a copy of your original orders. Ask the clerk to enter Form WV-116 into CLETS or the clerk may ask you or you attorney to deliver a copy to the police. That way, the police will know your orders are still in effect.

Request for Sheriff to Serve Court Papers

Instructions: Each county in California has a sheriff (and sometimes a marshal's office) that can serve different types of court papers, including restraining orders. Note that the sheriff cannot guarantee that they will be successful in finding the person you need served, but they will try to serve based on the information you put on this form.

- Complete this form for each set of papers you need served. You must complete a separate form for each person you need served.
- Find out where the person you need served is located. Give your papers to the sheriff or marshal's office in that county.
- You may have to pay for service of some court papers. For more information, see page 5 of this form, or go to https://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/sheriff-serves.
- Do not use this form if you are asking the sheriff to enforce a wage garnishment order on an employer. Instead, use forms WG-001, Application for Earnings Withholding Order, and WG-035, Confidential Statement of Judgment Debtor's Social Security Number.
- If you want the sheriff to enforce a writ or levy, complete this form and form SER-001A, Special Instructions for Writs and Levies—Attachment.

Your Next Steps

- Find out if you need to pay a fee for service by asking the court's self-help center, a lawyer, or the sheriff's office. Here are some situations where you do not need to pay for service:
 - If you have a fee waiver in your case (fee waiver granted by a judge on form FW-003 or FW-005).
 - If you are serving a domestic violence, elder abuse, or gun violence restraining order.
 - If you have a civil harassment, workplace violence, or school violence restraining order based on a credible threat of violence or stalking.
- Give this form and a copy of all the court papers you need served to the sheriff or marshal, including a copy of a fee waiver (if you have one). If you do not have to pay a fee to the sheriff, you can send your papers electronically. If you have to pay a fee, contact the sheriff to find out your options for turning in your request. Note that you can always turn in your request in person.
- You should get a form back from the sheriff.
 - If the sheriff was able to serve your court papers, you should receive a form (called a proof of service). Make sure you get a copy from the sheriff and file it with the court. Note that if there is a court stamp at the top right corner of the first page, it has already been filed and you do not need to file it with the court.
 - If the sheriff was unable to serve your court papers, you should receive a form (sometimes called declaration of due diligence) that tells you that service was unsuccessful and will give details about when the sheriff tried to serve the person. If the sheriff was unable to serve your papers, you can ask a lawyer or court's self-help center about your next steps.
- To find your local court self-help center, go to www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp. Self-help center staff will not act as your lawyer but may be able to give you information to help you decide what to do in your case. Services are free.
