JOINT READINESS DECLARATION MANDATORY SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE (Family Law)	CASE NUMBER

- A joint readiness declaration must be completed and signed by each self-represented litigant or, if represented, by his or her attorney.
- The readiness declaration must be filed with the court at or before the Family Resolution Conference or other hearing at which the court sets the date for the Mandatory Settlement Conference (MSC).
- Any party requesting a telephone appearance at the MSC must complete section "C" below and attach a completed Request to Appear by Telephone and Order (SDSC Form #D-259).
- Abbreviations: Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure (PDOD); Final Declaration of Disclosure (FDOD).

The undersigned declare as follows:

A. Completed all discovery means (a) there are no outstanding discovery issues and no pending hearings regarding discovery; and (b) no future discovery will be propounded absent a court order finding good cause.
   ☐ Petitioner has completed all discovery in this case.
   ☐ Respondent has completed all discovery in this case.

B. ☐ Petitioner's proof of service of his/her PDOD was filed with the court on (date) _____.
   ☐ Respondent's proof of service of his/her PDOD was filed with the court on (date) _____.

(Complete if a telephone appearance is requested by one or both parties)

C. ☐ Petitioner requests a court order to appear by telephone at MSC and has attached a completed Form D-259.
   ☐ Petitioner has served his/her FDOD and proof of service was filed with the court on (date) _____.
   ☐ Respondent requests a court order to appear by telephone at MSC and has attached a completed Form D-259.
   ☐ Respondent has served his/her FDOD and proof of service was filed with the court on (date) _____.
   ☐ Both parties have signed a stipulation mutually waiving their right to service of FDODs. The stipulation is in full compliance with Fam. Code § 2105(d) and was filed with the court on (date) _____.

D. Pursuant to the local rules, all parties and attorneys acknowledge the following:
   ☐ The MSC date must be confirmed with the court no later than 10 calendar days before the MSC.
   ☐ The parties or attorneys must exchange copies of their settlement conference briefs and provide the original to the settlement conference judge no later than 4:00 p.m., three court days before the MSC.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.
