

DIVISION VI JUVENILE

CHAPTER 1
JUVENILE RULES

Rule 6.1.1

Preliminary Provisions

A. These rules, together with the rules promulgated by the Judicial Council for the juvenile courts, the Welfare and Institutions Code, those sections of other codes specifically made applicable to juvenile proceedings by the Welfare and Institutions Code, and relevant case law, are the controlling body of law which governs proceedings in the San Diego Superior Court Juvenile Division.

B. Insofar as these rules are substantially the same as existing statutory provisions relating to the same subject matter, they are to be construed as restatements thereof.

Insofar as these rules may add to existing statutory provisions relating to the same subject matter, they are to be construed so as to implement the purposes of the juvenile court law.

C. To the extent that these rules may affect or declare substantive rights, these rules are intended to be a reflection of existing constitutional, statutory, case law, and Judicial Council rules of court, and are to be interpreted consistent with such law.

D. These rules are intended to be applied in a fair and equitable manner consistent with the best interest of the children and families appearing before the juvenile court.

E. Severability clause. If a rule or subdivision thereof in this division is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a rule or subdivision thereof in this division is invalid in one or more of its applications, the rule or subdivision thereof remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

F. These rules have prospective application only.

(Adopted 1/1/1990; Renum. 7/1/2001; Rev. 1/1/2002; Renum. 1/1/2006)

(Adopted 1/1/1990; Rev. 1/1/1997; Rev. 1/1/2002; Renum. 7/1/2001; Renum. 1/1/2006; Rev. 1/1/2008)

Rule 6.1.3

Standing, Rights and Levels of Participation in Dependency Cases

Unless otherwise expressly granted by constitutional, statutory, or case law, or rule of court, the standing, rights, and levels of participation of the following persons in dependency cases are limited to those provided in this rule.

A. Parents and/or guardian(s). The biological parents, adoptive parents, guardian(s), and/or person(s) having legal custody of a child who is the subject of a dependency action have standing as parties to the proceedings.

B. Child. The child who is the subject of a dependency action has standing as a party to the proceedings.

C. De facto parent. For purposes of this rule, a de facto parent is a person who has been found by the court to have assumed, on a day-to-day basis, the role of a parent to the child, fulfilling both the child's physical and psychological needs for care and affection, and who has assumed that role for a substantial period of time. No person will be granted de facto parent status who has inflicted or allowed to be inflicted serious harm on the child, including but not limited to physical, sexual, or emotional harm.

De facto parent status will be granted by the court only upon a written application. Notice of such application and hearing date will be given to the parties or their counsel of record by the court clerk. At the hearing on such application, the court will consider the contents of the dependency file, any report filed by the social worker or the CASA for the child, and any other relevant and admissible evidence presented by the parties. The court may consider the declarations filed in support of or in opposition to such application if the declarants are made available for cross-examination. Before granting de facto parent status, the court must find, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the moving party meets the criteria set forth in this rule. An application for de facto parent status will not, in and of itself, constitute good cause for continuing any other hearing in the dependency action.

The de facto parent of a child who is the subject of a dependency action has standing as a party to the proceedings to the degree that the proceedings directly affect the de facto parent's legally recognizable interest in the child.

A de facto parent's right to discovery in the dependency proceeding is pursuant to Welfare & Institutions Code section 827. Upon granting de facto parent status, the court may make such discovery orders pursuant to that section as are necessary and appropriate.

Upon granting de facto parent status, the court may appoint counsel on a pro bono basis for the de facto parent. No right to the appointment of counsel exists for the bringing of this application.

In any case in which a child is removed from the physical custody of his or her parents or legal guardians pursuant to Welfare & Institutions Code section 361, a de facto parent, if a relative or licensed foster care provider, will also receive preferential consideration for placement of the child over all other relatives and foster parents if such placement is in the best interest of the child and is conducive to any reunification efforts ordered by the court.

De facto parent status will continue only so long as the psychological bond continues to exist between the de facto parent and the child. De facto parent status automatically terminates upon the termination of dependency jurisdiction.

D. Relative. For purposes of this rule, a "relative" means an adult who is related to the child by blood, adoption, or affinity within the fifth degree of kinship, including stepparents, stepsiblings, and all relatives whose status is preceded by the words "great," "great-great" or "grand" or the spouse of any of these persons even if the marriage was terminated by death or dissolution. However, only the following relatives shall be given preferential consideration for the placement of the child: an adult who is a grandparent, aunt, uncle, or sibling.

A relative whose presence is known to the court will receive notice of juvenile court proceedings as otherwise provided by law, and may be present at such proceedings if the court finds that his or her presence would not disrupt the orderly court process and would be consistent with the best interests of the child.

Participation in the court process for relatives is limited to the submission of a written or oral statement regarding their interest in the child, any information they might have that relates to the child or the dependency action, and their recommendation regarding the child. The court may not consider such unsworn statements as evidence, but may consider such statements as a basis for ordering further investigation or services.

At the detention and disposition hearings, the home of a relative will be given preferential consideration for placement of the child, as provided in Welfare & Institutions Code section 361.3.

E. Foster parent. A foster parent of a child who is the subject of a dependency action will receive notice of proceedings as otherwise provided by law, and may be present at such proceedings if the court finds that such presence would not disrupt the orderly court process and would be consistent with the best interests of the child.

Participation in the court process for such foster parents is limited to the submission of a written or oral statement regarding their interest in the child, any information they might have that relates to the child or the dependency action, and their recommendation regarding the child. The court may not consider such unsworn statements as evidence, but may consider such statements as a basis for ordering further investigation or services.

(Adopted 1/1/1990; Rev. 1/1/1994; Rev. 1/1/1997; Renum. 7/1/2001; Rev. 1/1/2002; Rev. 1/1/2005; Renum. 1/1/2006; Rev. 1/1/2008)

Rule 6.1.4

Assignment of Cases and Peremptory Challenges

The court assigns dependency cases on an independent calendar system. Under that system, a dependency case assigned to a particular judge, commissioner, or referee will remain with that judicial officer until the termination of jurisdiction, unless otherwise ordered. Under the independent calendar system, a peremptory challenge to any judge, commissioner, or referee must be made pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 170.6. Such a challenge must be made prior to any determination of contested issues of fact relating to the merits and within 10 days after notice of the assignment of the case to a specific judge, commissioner, or referee, or it will be deemed untimely. Notice of the assignment is complete upon service of such notice or initial appearance in court. Each party will be allowed only one peremptory challenge per case. (This rule is adopted pursuant to Daniel V. v. Superior Court (2006) 139 Cal.App.4th 28.)

(Adopted 1/1/1990; Renum. 7/1/2001; Rev. 1/1/2002; Rev. 1/1/2005; Renum. 1/1/2006; Rev. 1/1/2008)

Rule 6.1.5

Objection to the Sufficiency of the Petition

A party may file an objection to challenge the sufficiency of a Welfare & Institutions Code section 300 petition on the ground that the petition alleges facts which, even if determined to be true, (a) are not sufficient to state a cause of action, or (b) are not stated with sufficient clarity and precision to enable the party to determine what must be defended against. (For purposes of this rule, "petition" includes amended petitions and subsequent petitions filed under Welf. & Inst. Code, § 342, 360, subd. (c), or 364.)

Such an objection may be made orally or in writing. However, it must be made at either: (a) the detention hearing or (b) the initial appearance after the filing of a petition but before the court makes a true finding. The court may entertain the objection by oral argument when made or may set it for further hearing.

If the court sets a hearing on the objection, counsel for the moving party may file a supporting memorandum of points and authorities. To be considered timely, the memorandum must be filed at least 48 hours before the hearing. Petitioner may file a responsive memorandum of points and authorities. To be considered timely, the responsive memorandum must be filed by 8:30 a.m. on the day of the hearing.

When an objection to the sufficiency of a petition is overruled and no plea has been filed, the court will allow the plea to be entered at the conclusion of the hearing or upon such terms as may be just.

When an objection to the sufficiency of a petition is sustained, the court may grant leave to amend the petition upon any terms as may be just and will fix the time within which the amended petition must be filed.

(Adopted 1/1/1990; Rev. 7/1/1991; Rev. 1/1/2002; Renum. 7/1/2001; Renum. 1/1/2006)

Rule 6.1.6

Amendment of the Welfare & Institutions Code Section 300 Petition

A. Petitioner may amend the petition once without leave of court, either: (1) before a plea is entered or an objection is filed, or (2) after a denial is entered but before the trial on the issue of jurisdiction, by filing the amended petition and serving a copy on all parties at the jurisdictional settlement conference.

B. The court may, in furtherance of justice, and on such terms as may be proper, allow the petitioner to amend the petition or any allegation in the petition by adding or striking the name of any party or by correcting statistical information, clerical mistake(s), or typographical error(s). (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 5.560(f).)

C. The court may, upon noticed motion or upon stipulation of all parties, and in furtherance of justice, amend the petition.

D. The court may, upon a finding that the variance is not material, amend the petition to conform to the evidence received by the court at the jurisdiction hearing.

E. Except as otherwise provided by law, the court may not amend the petition over the objection of petitioner.

(Adopted 1/1/1990; Rev. 1/1/1997; Rev. 1/1/2002; Renum. 7/1/2001; Renum. 1/1/2006; Rev. 1/1/2008)

Rule 6.1.7

Prehearing Discovery in Dependency Matter

A. Prehearing discovery will be conducted informally. Except as protected by statute, claim of privilege, or other good cause, all relevant material held by any party must be disclosed in a timely fashion to all parties to the litigation or made available to the parties upon request.

B. Only after all informal means have been exhausted may a party move the court for an order requiring disclosure.

The motion must identify with specificity the information sought, state the efforts which have been made to obtain the information through informal means, and explain why the information is relevant and material.

The original of the motion, with supporting declaration(s) and a memorandum of points and authorities, must be filed with the clerk of the assigned department. No motion will be accepted for filing or heard unless accompanied by a declaration by the movant or the movant's counsel, setting forth the following:

1. That the informal request for discovery was made at least five court days before the motion was filed;

2. The response, if any, to the informal request by the party to whom the request was directed or that party's counsel;

3. That the movant has met and conferred with the party to whom the request was directed or that party's counsel, or the facts showing that movant has attempted in good faith to meet and confer with the party to whom the request was directed or that party's counsel.

The clerk will assign a hearing date within 10 court days of the date the informal request was made, but not less than five days before the next hearing, whichever is sooner. Responsive pleadings must be filed and served at least two court days before the assigned hearing date.

C. Materials released by the HHSA pursuant to an informal request for discovery, or after a formal motion to compel discovery has been granted, will be subject to the following conditions unless the conditions are modified by a judicial officer:

1. All records and information obtained through discovery and any copies thereof are in the constructive possession and custody of the court and must be returned to the court at the conclusion of the court proceedings, including all appeals and writs brought in the case.

2. Use of records and information obtained through discovery for use in a juvenile court proceeding is limited to that proceeding only.

3. Counsel for the parties may make such copies of the records and information obtained through discovery as are necessary for the preparation and presentation of the case. Counsel is responsible for returning all such copies to the court at the conclusion of the proceeding.

4. Records and information obtained through discovery must be kept in a confidential manner and must not be released, directly or indirectly, to members of the media or any other individuals not directly connected with the court proceeding.

5. Records and information may be reviewed by the parties, their counsel, and any investigator or expert witness retained by counsel to assist in the preparation of the case. Any such person reviewing the records or information must be made familiar with the terms of this rule.

6. All reasonable costs incurred in the reproduction of records under this rule will be the responsibility of the party seeking the records.

D. Any discovery matters not addressed here by this rule or California Rules of Court, rule 5.546 will be treated as a Petition for Disclosure of Juvenile Court Records pursuant to Welfare & Institutions Code section 827 and California Rules of Court, rule 5.552, upon a noticed motion showing good cause as set forth in subdivision (b) above.

(Adopted 1/1/1990; Renum. 7/1/2001; Rev. 1/1/2002; Renum. 1/1/2006; Rev. 1/1/2008)

Rule 6.1.8

Pretrial Status Conference

A. At the discretion of the court, a pretrial status conference may be heard in the trial-setting department at least 10 calendar days before the date set for trial. Upon stipulation of all parties, the pretrial status conference may be heard within 10 calendar days before the date set for trial.

B. At the status conference, all attorneys must be prepared to address pretrial matters such as the continuing necessity for trial, the identification of contested and uncontested issues, the time estimated for trial, the exchange of witness lists, the filing of motions, the presentation of stipulated and documentary evidence, and requests for judicial notice. The court will establish a date and time certain for trial if one has not been previously set.

(Adopted 1/1/1990; Rev. 7/1/1990; Rev. 1/1/1997; Rev. 1/1/2002; Renum. 7/1/2001; Renum. 1/1/2006)

Rule 6.1.9

Settlement Conference

A. The court need not follow the procedures outlined in this rule where there is clear evidence that a settlement conference will not resolve the matter.

B. If a matter is set for a contested hearing, the court may order the parties and their counsel to appear at a settlement conference, and may schedule dates for both the settlement conference and the hearing. (The hearing will proceed as scheduled only if the matter does not settle.) HHSA social workers may be on telephone stand-by. Unless expressly excused by the court, if any other party fails to appear at the settlement conference, the court may issue a bench warrant for that party.

C. Before the settlement conference, each attorney must conduct a comprehensive interview with his or her client, and make any further investigations that he or she deems necessary to ascertain the facts.

D. At the settlement conference, the attorney for each party must be prepared to discuss the legal and factual issues and must negotiate the case in good faith. Each attorney must be prepared to submit, if appropriate:

1. a list of issues to be litigated;
2. a list of proposed documentary evidence;
3. a list of intended witnesses;
4. a written request for judicial notice (Evid. Code, § 450 et seq.);
5. a list of stipulated evidence which will be presented at the time of trial.

E. If a matter is not resolved at the settlement conference, the court will address pretrial issues. Counsel should be prepared to submit pretrial worksheets addressing the issues described in rule 6.1.8B.

(Adopted 1/1/1997; Renum. 7/1/2001; Rev. 1/1/2002; Renum. 1/1/2006)

Rule 6.1.10

Mediation

At the discretion of the court, a case may be referred to mediation. If referred, the court will identify the mediator and set the fee for the mediator's services. The parties and all attorneys will be ordered to appear at the mediation.

(Adopted 1/1/1997; Renum. 7/1/2001; Rev. 1/1/2002; Renum. 1/1/2006)

Rule 6.1.11

Use of Social Worker's Report at the Jurisdiction Hearing

At a jurisdiction hearing, the court will receive into evidence any social worker's report or screening summary. If the jurisdiction hearing is a contested hearing, the receipt of the report into evidence will be subject to the following requirements:

A. The report must be filed with the court and made available to the parties or their counsel at least 10 calendar days before the jurisdiction hearing.

B. The social worker or supervisor who prepared or supervised the preparation of the report must be available to testify at the jurisdiction hearing if counsel for the petitioner intends to offer the report into evidence.

C. For purposes of the jurisdiction hearing only, the court will strike any portion of the report containing anonymous information.

D. Upon request of the parent, guardian, child, or their counsel made at least five court days before the jurisdiction hearing, the social worker must either (1) provide the address and/or telephone number, if known, of any person whose statement is included in the social worker's report, or (2) make such person available, if requested, for cross-examination at the jurisdiction hearing. If, upon request, the social worker has not disclosed the address or telephone number, if known, of any witness, and a request is made to interview such witness before the hearing, the social worker must make such witness available for interview if practicable and if the witness is willing.

E. If the social worker, pursuant to subdivision D. of this rule, has provided the address of a witness to the parent, guardian, child, or their counsel, and if such parent, guardian, child, or counsel presents evidence of unsuccessful attempts and due diligence to subpoena such witness for the jurisdiction hearing, and if the court finds there has been due diligence, the court will strike, for purposes of the jurisdiction hearing only, the statements of such witness from the social worker's report. In the alternative, the court may grant a continuance for a period up to 10 court days for the parties, including the social worker, to attempt to subpoena or make such witness available for testimony at the jurisdiction hearing. The court will not grant more than one such continuance in any dependency matter.

F. If the social worker, pursuant to subdivision D. of this rule, has indicated that he or she will make such witness available at the jurisdiction hearing but fails to make such witness available, the court shall strike, for purposes of the jurisdiction hearing only, the statements of such witness from the social worker's report. In the alternative, the court may grant a continuance for a period of up to 10 court days for the parties, including the social worker, to attempt to subpoena or make such witness available for testimony at the jurisdiction hearing. The court will not grant more than one such continuance in any dependency matter.

G. For purposes of this rule, an attachment to a social worker's report is considered part of the social worker's report and will be received into evidence if: (1) such attachment is relevant to the jurisdictional issues, (2) the social worker has referred to the significant portions of such attachment in the body of the report, (3) the social worker used the attachment as part of the basis of any conclusion or recommendation made in the report, and (4) the requirements of subdivisions (a) through F. of this rule have been met.

(Adopted 1/1/1990; Rev. & Renum. 1/1/1997; Renum. 7/1/2001; Rev. 1/1/2002; Renum. 1/1/2006)

Rule 6.1.12

Findings at Jurisdiction Hearing

A. Procedure. At a jurisdiction hearing, the court may make a finding on the allegations in the petition by way of one of the following procedures:

1. Admission of Allegations. The court may accept an admission from a party that all or part of the allegations in the petition are true.

Before accepting an admission, the court must satisfy itself that the party understands the nature of the allegations in the petition and understands and waives the trial rights enumerated in California Rules of Court, rule 5.682. The court must also find that there is a factual basis for the admission. The child may object to the finding of a factual basis and may request a contested hearing on that issue.

2. No Contest. The court may accept a plea of "no contest" to the allegations in the petition from a party.

Before accepting a "no contest" plea, the court must satisfy itself that the party understands the nature of the allegations in the petition and understands and waives the trial rights enumerated in California Rules of Court, rule 5.682. The court must also find that there is a factual basis for the "no contest" plea. The child may object to the finding of a factual basis and may request a contested hearing on that issue.

3. Submission on Reports. The court may allow a dependency matter to be submitted on available written reports upon a stipulation by all parties. The reports received by the court for purposes of a determination of jurisdiction may include the screening summary, police reports, and any other reports submitted by the social worker along with any attachments thereto. The court may make a finding that the allegations in the petition are true or not true, in whole or in part, based upon the information contained in the submitted reports.

Before allowing a party to submit the matter for decision based upon these reports, the court must satisfy itself that the party understands the nature of the allegations in the petition and understands and waives the trial rights enumerated in California Rules of Court, rule 5.682.

The party may make a closing argument before the court renders a decision.

4. Contested Hearing. The court may hear the matter as a contested hearing and receive testimonial or documentary evidence properly submitted by the parties. The court will make findings on the allegations in the petition based upon such evidence.

B. Jurisdictional Findings. Inasmuch as a jurisdictional finding is as to the child, and not as to the parent or guardian, the court may make a finding that the child is a person described by Welfare & Institutions Code section 300 only after following the procedures of this rule or after making a finding that reasonable efforts have been made and failed to locate the parent or guardian, as to each and every parent and guardian.

(Adopted 1/1/1990; Rev. & Renum. 1/1/1997; Renum. 7/1/2001; Rev. 1/1/2002; Renum. 1/1/2006; Rev. 1/1/2008)

Rule 6.1.13

Court-Appointed Special Advocates (CASAs)

In any action pursuant to Welfare & Institutions Code sections 300-399, the court may, in an appropriate case and in addition to any counsel appointed for a child, appoint a court-appointed special advocate (CASA) to represent the best interests of the child who is the subject of the proceedings. If the court determines that a child would not benefit from the appointment of counsel pursuant to Welfare & Institutions Code section 317 and California Rules of Court, rule 5.660, the court may appoint a CASA for the child to serve as guardian ad litem, as required by Welfare & Institutions Code section 326.5. The CASA has the same duties and responsibilities as a guardian ad litem and must meet the requirements set forth in California Rules of Court, rule 5.660. CASA volunteers must be trained by and function under the auspices of Voices for Children, the court-appointed special advocate program formed and operated under the guidelines established by the National Court Appointed Special Advocate Association, Welfare & Institutions Code sections 100-109, and California Rules of Court, rule 5.655.

(Adopted 1/1/1990; Rev. 1/1/1997; Rev. 1/1/2002; Renum. 7/1/2001; Renum. 1/1/2006; Rev. 1/1/2008)

Rule 6.1.14

Ex Parte Applications and Orders

A. Any party making an ex parte request for an order from the court in a dependency matter must give 24 hours' notice to all other parties or their counsel. A declaration that such notice has been given to all other parties or their counsel must be set forth in the moving papers.

The court may waive such notice only upon a showing of good cause that is set forth by clear facts in a supporting declaration or declarations.

B. Except in emergency matters requiring immediate action, all ex parte applications and proposed orders must be delivered during regular business hours to the clerk of the judicial officer assigned to the case, for presentation to that judicial officer.

(Adopted 1/1/1990; Renum. 1/1/1997; Rev. 7/1/2001; Rev. 1/1/2002; Renum. 1/1/2006)

Rule 6.1.15

Presence of Child at Court Hearing

A. This rule governs the attendance of children at court hearings unless the child is present by subpoena, the desire to be present, or by other order of the court.

B. Children under four years of age are excused from attending all court hearings.

C. Children four years of age and over must attend if:

1. Directed to attend by the court.

2. Requested to attend by a party or their counsel, and the court finds that:

a. Attending would not be detrimental to the child.

b. The child is not otherwise unable to attend due to disability, physical illness, or medical condition.

D. No child is to be brought to court solely for the child to confer with the child's attorney or to visit parents.

E. If the child is present, the judicial officer in the assigned court may view and speak with the child. If the child is represented by counsel, counsel will also be present.

(Adopted 1/1/1990; Rev. 7/1/1991; Rev. & Renum. 1/1/1997; Renum. 7/1/2001; Rev. 1/1/2002; Renum. 1/1/2006)

Rule 6.1.16

Procedure for Establishing Paternity; Blood Tests

A. The juvenile court is a proper forum to determine the parentage of a child when such a finding becomes necessary during a dependency proceeding.

B. Any action to determine the biological parentage of a child who is the subject of a dependency proceeding must conform to the provisions of Family Code sections 7620 and 7630 et seq., except that either the petitioner or counsel for the child may also bring the action. Only approved Judicial Council forms may be used in all such actions.

C. Except on stipulation by the parties and agreement of the court, any motion for blood, HLA, or DNA, or similar tests must be properly noticed, in writing, accompanied by a memorandum of points and authorities in support of the motion and a declaration by counsel which specifies the type of test to be conducted, the entity that will perform the test, and the cost of the procedure.

The court must enter appropriate orders for payment of the cost of the test, including but not limited to, apportionment among or between the parties.

D. Any action to determine parentage may be assigned to a referee of the juvenile court upon the filing of a fully executed stipulation that the referee will act in the capacity of a superior court judge. If the parties do not so stipulate, the matter will be transferred to a superior court judge for the sole purpose of hearing the parentage issue.

E. At the conclusion of any such action, the court will enter judgment(s) accordingly.

F. Nothing in this rule will extend any statutory time limits for hearings, including disposition or review. Nor will any provision of this rule preclude the court from issuing any proper interim orders or findings to promote the best interest of the child.

(Adopted 1/1/1990; Rev. & Renum. 1/1/1997; Renum. 7/1/2001; Rev. 1/1/2002; Renum. 1/1/2006)

Rule 6.1.17

Confidentiality of Foster Homes (Welfare & Institutions Code section 308)

A. For purposes of this rule, "foster family home" means the home of any person certified or licensed as a foster parent for the detention or placement of children pending or during juvenile dependency proceedings.

B. For purposes of this rule, placement of a child includes the placement or detention of a child by the HHSA or the court pending or during juvenile dependency proceedings.

C. The address of any foster family home in which a child has been placed must be kept confidential at all times except as provided by this rule and any other provisions of law directly applicable to the confidentiality of foster family homes. Nothing in this rule prohibits, where appropriate, the release of the first name of the foster parent and a telephone number at which the foster parent can be reached so as to facilitate contact with the child. Further, nothing in this rule may be construed to restrict the right or ability of the parent or guardian to visitation and contact with the child at a location other than the foster family home where such visitation and contact is in the child's best interest.

D. The safety and protection of the foster family and the safety, protection, physical and emotional well-being of all children placed in the foster family home will be the primary considerations in any decision or ruling made pursuant to this rule.

E. A foster parent may at any time authorize the release of his or her address, thereby waiving the confidentiality of that foster family home.

1. Any such authorization must be in writing, be personally signed and dated by the foster parent, identify the specific individual(s) the foster parent is authorizing release of the foster family home address to, and include a statement that the foster parent is aware of the confidentiality provisions of the law and is voluntarily waiving them.

2. Any such authorization must be provided to the social worker who must maintain the authorization in the HHSA file. The social worker must advise the attorney for the child, if any, and any CASA of the authorization within three court days. The authorization will not go into effect for a period of seven days unless both the social worker and the attorney for the child, if any, concur that waiver of the confidentiality of the foster family home will not endanger the child's safety, protection, physical or emotional well-being. At any time before the expiration of the seven days, the social worker or the attorney for the child, if any, may apply to the juvenile court, with notice to all parties, for an order directing that the address of the foster family home be kept confidential and the reasons therefor.

3. Any such authorization may be withdrawn by the foster family at any time before the actual release of the address of the foster family home. Such withdrawal will not be effective unless communicated to and received by the social worker handling the case before the actual release by the social worker of the address of the foster family home.

F. At the detention hearing the court will make an order that the address of the foster family home must be kept confidential as required by law.

G. Except as provided in subdivision E. of this rule, the confidentiality of the address of a foster family home must be maintained at all times before the disposition hearing or the expiration of 60 days from the date the child was ordered removed or detained, whichever comes first.

H. At the disposition hearing and at any regularly scheduled review hearing, any party to the proceeding may request the court to issue an order releasing the address of the foster family home. No

Welfare & Institutions Code section 388 petition will be required at such hearings, but the procedures and standards set forth in subdivision I. of this rule for the consideration and issuance of such an order must be followed. Notice to the foster family home may be made orally, however.

I. Following the disposition hearing or the expiration of 60 days from the date the child was ordered removed or detained, whichever comes first, any interested person may petition the court pursuant to Welfare & Institutions Code section 388 for an order releasing the address of the foster family home.

1. The court will follow the procedures for the determination of a Welfare & Institutions Code section 388 petition, including the summary denial of the petition, but will not grant the petition without a noticed hearing.

2. The foster parent and all parties or their counsel must be noticed for the hearing. The foster parent must be noticed through the HHSA. The foster parent has the right to be present, to be represented by retained counsel, and to participate in the proceedings.

3. The court will not grant the petition unless the person seeking release of the address has met his or her burden to show that new evidence or a change of circumstance establishes good cause for the release of the address and that the release is in the best interest of the child. For purposes of this determination, the best interest of the child includes, but is not limited to, the safety, protection, physical and emotional well-being of the child, as well as the safety and protection of the foster family with which the child is placed.

4. Any order of the court releasing the address of the foster family home will be stayed for a period of 10 days, and may be stayed for a period in excess of 10 days, to allow any party, including the foster parent, to seek review of the decision through rehearing or petition for extraordinary writ relief.

CASA Reports

In any case in which the court has ordered the appointment of a CASA (court-appointed special advocate), the CASA must submit reports to the court at least two days before each of the following hearings: six-month review; twelve-month review (permanency hearing); eighteen-month review (permanency review hearing); selection and implementation hearing (366.26 hearing); and post-permanency planning reviews. Only parties and their counsel are entitled to receive copies of CASA reports. Relatives, de facto parents, foster parents, and service providers are not entitled to receive copies of CASA reports.

CASA reports will be copied and distributed by Voices for Children staff.

Rule 6.1.19

Substance Abuse Recovery Management System (SARMS)

At the detention or initial hearing, if the HHSA report informs the court that a parent has alcohol and/or drug issues, the court will refer that parent to the Substance Abuse Recovery Management System ("SARMS") for an assessment. If the court subsequently assumes jurisdiction and the parent has not been assessed voluntarily, the court will order that parent to report to SARMS for assessment within 48 hours. If the assessment indicates a need for treatment, the SARMS Recovery Specialist will develop a Recovery Services Plan (RSP) with the parent. The RSP will state the requirements for successful completion of the treatment program (e.g., submission to random urine testing, attendance at treatment program meetings, participation in individual and/or group therapy, et al.) and will be incorporated by reference into the court-ordered reunification case plan. Once the RSP has been developed, the parent must begin treatment immediately.

SARMS shall submit all biweekly progress reports to the court and HHSA. Upon request by counsel, the court will make copies of the progress reports available. SARMS also shall submit reports of noncompliance to the parent's attorney. The progress reports must state whether the parent is actively participating in treatment, the number of sessions or meetings missed, if any, whether those absences were excused, and the results of each urinalysis. After the court has ordered participation in SARMS, review hearings are held after 30 days and 60 days to review the parent's progress.

Noncompliance with the RSP (i.e., a “noncompliant event” as defined in the court’s Order to Participate in SARMS, Form SDSC JUV-131) will result in the following sanctions: For the first violation, the parent will receive a judicial reprimand. For each subsequent violation, the parent will be cited for contempt of court for disobeying a court order; a finding of contempt may result in a fine and/or incarceration for up to five days. If and when the parent is found in contempt of court and ordered to jail, the dependency judge will also order that the parent report for a Dependency Drug Court screening hearing after his or her release from jail.
