San Diego Superior Court's Family Law Facilitator Services Closed on Friday, July 27, 2018 One Day Closure for Staff Training

The Family Law Facilitator's Office which provide self-represented litigants with assistance on their family law case will be unavailable on Friday, July 27, 2018. The closure will allow time for annual mandatory staff training.

The Family Law Facilitator's Office (FLF) provides, at no cost, help for unrepresented parents and parties who have questions about family law issues. Staff can help prepare court forms and provide general legal information. The FLF office is operated by court attorneys, paralegals, and clerks with experience in Family Law.

"We know how popular these services are and how much people depend on the help provided by our Family Law Facilitators' office. This training must be done and we are trying to minimize the impact on customers as much as possible. We hoping by getting the word out now, we can keep those who need the service from coming to the courthouse on that Friday. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause.

The FLF office will resume services on Monday, July 30, 2018.
