

SELF-HELP SERVICES

Provided In-Person at Courthouses of the San Diego Superior Court
By San Diego Volunteer Lawyers Program (SDVLP)

SELF-HELP TOPIC	COURT LOCATION	DAYS & HOURS
NOTE: The rules for self-help services provided at the courthouses by SDVLP in Civil Harassment and Unlawful Detainers are the same as for help provided by court staff to members of the public. The information on the Self-Help Center website, or provided to you in person by a Self-Help Center lawyer or staff person, is not legal advice. The Self-Help Center lawyer is not your lawyer. He or she works for San Diego Volunteer Lawyers Program and is a lawyer who can help people who do not have their own lawyer. You do not have an attorney-client privilege with the Self-Help Center staff or lawyer. What you say to the staff or lawyer is not confidential. Parties on both sides of a case can get help from the Self-Help Center, and parties on both sides of a case may be helped by the same attorney or staff person at the Self-Help Center. Self-Help Center services are free. Anyone who does not have their own lawyer can get help from the Self-Help Center. It does not matter how much money you make.
