NOTICE TO ATTORNEYS

SAN DIEGO FIRES - REQUEST FOR EMERGENCY ORDER AND ORDER FROM THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL

Pursuant to Government Code section 68115, the court's Request for an Emergency Order, and the Order from the Judicial Council in response thereto, October 22 and 23, 2007 have been deemed holidays for the purposes of computing time for (1) filing papers with the court under Code of Civil Procedure sections 12 and 12a and (2) under Penal Code section 825 and Welfare and Institutions Code section 631.

The court has further been authorized to, among other things, extend the duration of temporary restraining orders, extend time for preliminary examinations, felony arraignments and trials, detention hearings and adjudication on juvenile petitions wherein a felony is charged.

Based on the court's closure of all facilities countywide for the duration of the week, the court has requested an extension of the above Emergency Order, which would include declaring October 24, 2007 through October 26, 2007 holidays for the above purposes, and allow the continuation of the above authorizations to extend time under specified circumstances.

For further updated information as it becomes available, please check the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov.
