NOTICE TO ATTORNEYS

ON-LINE MEDIATOR SELECTION

Effective April 8, 2008, the Superior Court of California, County of San Diego, launched a new Alternative Dispute Resolution ("ADR") webpage. The Mediation section of the webpage provides attorneys and parties with on-line access to a list of approved mediators on the court's Civil Mediation Panel, a Subject Area Experience/Expertise Listing, and Mediator Profiles detailing each mediator's training, experience, and fees. In order to facilitate the selection of a primary and an alternate mediator, parties and attorneys can utilize a keyword search tool as well as an on-line Mediator Selection Form (CIV-005), which can then be e-mailed or hand-delivered to the court. The convenience of these on-line features may prove especially helpful to parties and/or attorneys appearing telephonically for their Case Management Conference in accordance with California Rules of Court, rule 3.670.

Hard copies of the Mediator Selection Form (CIV-005) can be downloaded and printed from the ADR webpage and are also available at the Mediation Program Office or Civil Business Office at each court location.
