Superior Court Announces New Court Commissioner

San Diego Superior Court judges have selected North County attorney Kelly C. Doblado to serve as a court commissioner. She took the oath of office on Wednesday, January 26, 2011.

Commissioner Doblado, 41, has more than 16 years of experience in the legal field, having worked as a paralegal while pursuing her law degree. Before joining the bench, Commissioner Doblado, who is a Certified Family Law Specialist, most recently worked exclusively in the family law field in her own practice.

Commissioner Doblado received her J.D. from Thomas Jefferson School of Law (1999). She is a graduate of Cal Poly San Luis Obispo (1991) and the UCLA Paralegal Program (1992).

Commissioners are attorneys who are selected by the judges of the Superior Court. The commissioners are granted powers to hear and make decisions concerning certain legal matters such as misdemeanors and traffic cases.
