STIPULATION FOR COURT COMMISSIONER TO ACT AS TEMPORARY JUDGE FOR ALL PURPOSES	DCSS NUMBER

Commissioner _____ is a judicial officer selected by the judges of the San Diego Superior Court assigned to hear and determine family juvenile law cases because of his or her experience, skill and knowledge in handling these matters.

In order to have a commissioner act as a judge in a case, all parties to the case must agree that the commissioner can act as a temporary judge. If any party does not agree, the case will be reassigned to another judicial officer for today's hearing and all future hearings. A commissioner's authority to act as a judge upon the agreement of the parties comes from article VI, sections 21 and 22 of the California Constitution, and Code of Civil Procedure, section 259, subdivision (d).

To "stipulate" means you agree to the appointment of Commissioner _____ as a judge for this hearing and all future hearings and trials in this case, including any contempt proceedings and all post-judgment matters.

IT IS STIPULATED by the attorneys and/or parties signing below that Commissioner _____ will hear and decide all present and future matters in this case as a Temporary Judge, including any contempt proceedings and all post-judgment matters.
