San Diego Resident to Lead 2013-14 County Grand Jury

A retired construction management company owner is the foreperson of the newly selected San Diego County Grand Jury. Gregory L. Ny, 63, and eighteen other San Diego County residents began serving the community as Grand Jurors on July 8, 2013.

"I had a friend that served on one of the past Grand Juries. Based on conversations with him, I thought that this would be a rewarding experience and a great way to give back to the community," says Ny.

The California Constitution mandates that a group of at least 19 citizens in each county be selected and dedicated to a year of full-time "watchdog" service evaluating and investigating the workings of local government.

"As a 'watchdog' for the citizens of S. D. County; I am hopeful that this Grand Jury will be able to make an impact on the system and address the citizens' complaints in a manner that will both help the community and make the effected agency or organizations a better place," says Ny.

The new Grand Jurors were randomly drawn from a pool of 77 qualified San Diego County residents. The names and occupations of the selected 2013/2014 Grand Jurors are listed below:
