Services Provided by GAP:

- Informational workshops on guardianships.
- Assistance with reviewing and completing guardianship forms.
- Assistance with resolving defects in paperwork.
- Assistance with filing an objection in a San Diego guardianship case.
- Assistance with terminating a guardianship in a San Diego guardianship case.

Services NOT Provided by GAP:

- Assistance with guardianship of the estate.
- Assistance with Juvenile Court matters.
- Assistance with conservatorships.
- Assistance individuals who are currently represented by an attorney.

Options for Using GAP Services

1. For assistance with starting a case: Attend an informational workshop on guardianships. Workshops are held weekly and signups are available on the court website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov. From the home page, select Self-Help, then select Family Law.
2. For assistance with an existing case: GAP is located in the Central Courthouse at 1100 Union Street on the 5th floor, Room 571. Assistance is provided on a first-come, first-served basis. You may also call (619) 844-2869 to make an appointment for assistance.
