

The North County Courthouse is Open and Hearing All Case Types

Due to the temporary closure of the North building, all criminal, juvenile, family law and civil hearings will be heard in the South building. If you are scheduled for a criminal, juvenile, or family law hearing please check-in at the Information Desk located in the lobby of the South building and you will be directed to the correct courtroom. Please be prepared to provide either your case number, your name, or the courtroom number where you were originally scheduled.

If you are attending a civil hearing, please go directly to the courtroom where you are scheduled. All traffic matters continue to be processed and heard in the Annex building.
