COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

IN RE THE DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY FROM THE PRESIDING
JUDGE TO THE SUPERVISING JUDGES

GENERAL ORDER OF THE PRESIDING DEPARTMENT

ORDER NO. 010122-05(A)

THIS COURT FINDS AND ORDERS AS FOLLOWS:

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 10.603, and the authority set forth below, the following duties are delegated from the Presiding Judge to the Supervising Judges¹:

- The authority to sign a formal judgment, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 635, when a decision of the court has been entered in the minutes and the judge who heard or tried the case is unavailable. For purposes of this delegation, the term “unavailable” may include a judge that has been transferred to a new assignment, except as set forth in People v. Rodriguez (2016) 1 Cal.5th 676. However, this does not prohibit transmitting the judgment or order to the judge who heard or tried the case for review and signature, unless that judge is no longer a judge of this court.

¹ For purposes of this Order, the Presiding Judge of Juvenile Court is considered a Supervising Judge.

- 1 • The authority to properly approve party stipulations to have cases heard by a
2 temporary judge, in accordance with California Rules of Court, rule 2.831(a). After
3 the parties have signed the Stipulation portion of the Order, Stipulation and Oath
4 for Temporary Judge form, the courtroom clerk may affix the approving judge's
5 signature to the form using the appropriate facsimile signature stamp.
- 6 • The authority to rule on a request to file new litigation by a vexatious litigant subject
7 to a prefiling order, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 391.7. This 8 includes the authority to condition the filing of the litigation upon the furnishing of 9 security for the benefit of defendants as provided in Code of Civil Procedure section 10 391.3.
- 11 • The authority to rule on an application to vacate the prefiling order and remove the 12 vexatious litigant's name from the statewide list, when the judge who entered the 13 prefiling order is not available, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 391.8.

14 For purposes of this Delegation Order, the Assistant Supervising Judge may sign judgments
15 or orders as delegated by the Supervising Judge.

16 This order is effective immediately and will expire on December 31, 2022, unless otherwise
17 ordered by the Presiding Judge.

18 IT IS SO ORDERED.
